

The Association held its second virtual meeting October 13th welcoming back Orlando Commissioner Patty Sheehan and Orlando Police Officer Eddie Rosardo.
Highlights:

1. More graffiti found beneath the Washington St Bridge. The City has been notified and will remove soon.
2. After talking about the current condition of the street view of the Washington St Bridge and how to make improvements, Commissioner Sheehan volunteered to fund a pressure cleaning and paint refresh. (see photos below) Please thank Commissioner Sheehan if you see her over the holidays.
3. Discussed the proposed "Lofts on Ferncreek" at the intersection of Ferncreek and Colonial Drive (across from Seven-Eleven)
4. Discussed the proposed development of town home development "Ten on South" at the intersection of South St and Thornton Ave. (across from the Masonic Lodge)
5. Mentioned the expansion of "The Milk District" west on Robinson St into the Lawsona Fern Creek Neighborhood. Looking forward to partnering with this Main Street District.
6. Reviewed Lake Eola Park Future Land Use Survey. Public input meetings planned for November.
7. Reviewed Orlando Traffic Safety Seminar attended by two members of LLFCNA.
8. Reviewed property sales in LLFC Neighborhood over the past 12 months.

